ABOUT THE EVENT

Each day brings new developments during the coronavirus pandemic. As organisations scramble to adapt to the 'new normal' and optimise their functioning, strong leadership is more important than ever before. In the historically transitional environment of the NSW Public Sector, leaders are valued for their ability to skillfully manage complex situations and withstand external challenges. Now is the time to harness this skill and use it to optimise performance during these unprecedented times.

To succeed as a leader and drive productivity in your teams, it is essential to develop a firm understanding of your strengths and weaknesses. In doing so, you'll learn how they can impact your team's performance as well as your own. You will need to demonstrate keen insight into internal and external challenges, show strong emotional intelligence and the ability to positively impact stakeholders to lead with greater influence and effectiveness.

This workshop will equip you with the tools and knowledge to build confidence in your abilities as a leader. This hands-on, two-day interactive learning session has been designed with both current and emerging leaders in mind. You'll be equipped with a practical leadership strategy that you can use to navigate a successful career in the NSW Public Sector.

YOUR FACILITATOR

Karen is one of Australia's leading executive management and leadership development specialists who has worked with thousands of executives to transition them into senior executive roles quickly and effectively. She is an Organisational Psychologist passionate about people's success and facilitating their careers to rise. Karen's workshops are best described as practical, hands-on, personally relevant and enjoyable. Currently lecturing in Organisational Psychology at UNSW, she researches leadership, assessment, learning and performance as well as innovation. A person with a passion for making an impact quickly, she bases her workshops on current evidence and its application.

Organisations seek out her guidance across a range of project areas including leadership development, team building, business strategy, and innovation and change interventions. She is often working with the talent pools of many of Australia's leading multinational, ASX listed and public sector firms as a coach, facilitator and researcher. Karen has high level senior executive experience in directing and managing large teams and leading sales and customer service functions both on and off shore (including experience managing JV partnerships across 8 cities in China). She is also a start-up advisor.

Karen holds a Masters in Management from MGSM to complement her Doctoral level psychology qualifications (USyd) and is a graduate of the National Speakers Association Academy, now known as the Professional Speakers Association. A self-described geekgirl with a passion for technology and innovation, Karen has several apps in the apple appstore, and is an award winning astro-photographer for fun.
