GET BACK ON THE HORSE KEYNOTE

9:00 - 9:50

You didn't go into a career in ICT and digital thinking it would be easy. You're too driven to be satisfied by the easy road, but being a woman in such a heavily male-dominated space has its unique challenges. If you want to keep your career progressing, you're going to need some strategies to get back on the horse and keep it galloping.

Samantha is a CIO, an entrepreneur, a mother, and an avid horse-rider. She shares insights from her varied career to help you keep on track.

Change is afoot, and as a leader in your organisation, you will play a critical role in delivery. The Harvard Business Review reports that 70% of change initiatives fail. How will you buck the trend and ensure your team continues to thrive and deliver quality outcomes?

Drawing on her seventeen years in IT and change management, Mary-Beth will offer expert insight into the characteristics of a successful change management program.

Mary-Beth Hosking

MORNING TEA

10:40 - 10:55

YOUR AUTHENTIC LEADERSHIP BRAND EXPERT COMMENTARY

10:55 - 11:45

As leaders, you are the face of your company. When your team reflect on their day at work, and their overall satisfaction, they are in no small part reflecting on their relationship with you. As in your personal life, authenticity predicates healthy workplace relationships. To get the best out of your team, and set yourself up for a stellar leadership career, you need to be courageously authentic in your leadership.

THE CUSP OF INNOVATION CASE STUDY

11:45 - 12:35

In an industry characterised by lightning-speed development, where you must have your finger on the pulse of innovation, standing out as a leader in your organisation means having a sixth sense for the next big opportunity in tech and digital. But you don't need to be a psychic to impress and progress - you just need to be able to read the signs in the market. Professional entrepreneur Ludwina has a knack for just that. She has spent the bulk of her professional life at the very precipice of innovation, from producing TV back in the analogue days to now shaking up the short term accommodation market with The Room Xchange; Ludwina knows how to pick the perfect moment to innovate. Apply her entrepreneurial insights to your work and you're sure to make your leadership mark in your organisation.

LUNCH

THE PIPELINE PROBLEM PANEL

1:35 - 2:35

We know that women enter ICT and digital at lower rates compared to men, and exit the space far earlier and at higher rates than men. In both instances, studies suggest the issue is cultural. Women lose interest in STEM at fifteen, ostensibly due to a lack of female role models, and women leave the profession in pursuit of work environments with more women and flexible work arrangements. How can we attract and retain women in ICT and digital with the odds stacked so heavily against us?

In 2011, Rebecca and her husband packed up their lives and moved to Haiti to help rebuild the country after the devastating earthquake. There, her life changed forever. Inspired by her love of reading, and the desperate need for resources she saw in the local schools, she founded A Library for All - the cloud-based digital library bringing literacy to the world's most disadvantaged children.

Rebecca shares how A Library for All lives and breathes the principles of human-centred design, harnessing the power of digital to effect meaningful change in the lives of their customers.

PEOPLE POWER IN TECH TRANSFORMATION

KEYNOTE

9:00 - 9:50

It's a truth universally acknowledged that successful digital transformations are not about technology, they're all about people. Right. But in practice, that truism turns out to be messy, complex and challenging to realise. In this session, Lynn will explore the various dimensions of people-centred success in digital and IT initiatives. Reflecting on case studies and real-world examples from her extensive experience at the frontline of transformation, she will share learnings and insights to help avoid people problems and deliver great, tech-enabled business outcomes, powered by people.

Director Corporate Operations

POSITIVE THINKING ISN'T ENOUGH

EXPERT COMMENTARY

9:50 - 10:40

Optimism is a nice idea, but without the reinforcement of helpful, encouraging and productive thinking habits, an optimistic mindset is redundant. Your mind is an incredibly powerful tool, but harnessing that power is more complex than that. Clare will help you get the best out of your brain for a brilliant career.

MORNING TEA

THE EMBODIMENT OF LEADERSHIP

EXPERT COMMENTARY

11:00 - 11:50

'Leader' isn't a job title. Leadership is a way of being, defined by the choices you make and the action you take. And it is a reward in itself. Vineti shares her 'Be, do, have' model, so you can embody leadership and reap the rewards of a fulfilling career.

FAIL YOUR WAY TO SUCCESS - EXPERIMENTING WITH DELIVERY METHODOLOGIES

CASE STUDY

11:45 - 12:35

Choosing a delivery methodology for your organisation requires getting your hands dirty. The only way you'll know if your best fit is Scrum, Lean Method, Lean Six Sigma, Calm Balm, Dev-Ops, Agile, or a unique hybrid of multiple approaches, is by trying and failing. Probably several times. You need permission to fail fearlessly.

LUNCH

Sharing insights from women at varying stages of their careers, this panel will equip you with tools to keep your career on track.
