- ▶ Conquer your domain through confidence and communicate like a leader

SUMMIT DAY 1

5 FEBRUARY

LEAD FOR INCLUSION - A PLAN FOR CULTURAL INCLUSIVITY KEYNOTE 9:00 - 9:30

Diverse teams boost creativity, enabling your team to tackle problems from multiple angles and discover unique solutions. But to build a multicultural team, you must first establish trust.

Join the Honourable Minister Selena Uiibo as she discusses how you can break down cultural differences to establish trust in the workplace. You'll learn how to proactively accommodate different work schedules and provide everyone with a voice to secure the fair treatment of your team.

Selena Uiibo

Minister for Aboriginal Affairs; Minister for Education; Minister for Workforce Training

INTERACTIVE NETWORKING SESSION BREAKOUT SESSION 9:30 - 9:50

Catie Kirke Chair

A RESILIENT, STRONGER YOU CASE STUDY 9:50 - 10:40

Deadlines, rivalry, and organisational change characterise the modern workplace. Success relies on your ability to 'bounce back' from inevitable career challenges. Join Karinda as she explores strategies to help you build workplace resilience.

Karinda Gill

Founder, Business Manager
Abode New Homes

BUILD A PROFESSIONAL NETWORK TO SECURE CAREER PROSPERITY CASE STUDY 11:00 - 11:40

Forming and maintaining strong professional relationships is a core component of career success. Networks help you access resources, information, and support. However, some people find networking a daunting task and refrain from making these vital connections.

Join Linda as she explains how to make professional connections, make a lasting impression with new contacts, and solidify your professional presence online through an interactive activity.

Linda Fazldeen

Director, Defence & Veterans Engagement
Department of Trade, Business & Innovation -
Northern Territory Government

REFLECTIONS ON LEADING IN A MALE-DOMINATED ENVIRONMENT INTERVIEW 11:40 - 12:30

Women have been eschewing clerical positions and venturing into traditionally male-held professions for over a century. While the movement to enter male-dominated environments has progressed, men may show a reluctance to follow suit. So how do we rise to the challenge? Lieutenant Colonel Mason will discuss how to use a tactical adaptive mindset and be a chameleon without compromising authenticity.

LTCOL Michelle Mason

Commanding Officer Joint Health Unit
Australian Army

DEVELOP YOUR EXECUTIVE PRESENCE & LEAD WITH CONFIDENCE PANEL 1:30 - 2:30

Executive presence is a trait aspiring executives know they need, but its definition is murky at best. Is it charisma? Is it grace under pressure? Will those in charge of your career path agree that you have 'it'? Join our panellists as they discuss what it takes to develop your executive presence and build confidence.

Joanne Norton

Executive Director People &
Organisational Capability
Department of Health, NT

Renaë McGarvie Police Sergeant
Northern Territory Police,
Fire & Emergency Services

Catherine Fairlie
Practice Lead, Intensive Services
ERMHA

LAY YOUR STAKE IN A MALE-DOMINATED ENVIRONMENT CASE STUDY 2:30 - 3:30

For many women, "making it" necessitates learning how to navigate male-dominated environments. Unconscious bias, male preferential norms, and a lack of recognition are all challenges women must learn to overcome if they wish to succeed. Tracy will discuss the importance of staying true to yourself while exploring strategies to be seen and heard.

Tracy Jones

Superintendent, Community & Corporate Affairs
McArthur River Zinc Mine

INTERACTIVE NETWORKING SESSION EXPERT COMMENTARY 3:40 - 4:30

Catie will conclude today's event with getting you started on your professional presence online with an interactive networking session using online social tools.

Catie Kirke Chair

DRINKS & CANAPÉS 4:30 - 5:30

Continue to network while you enjoy complimentary refreshments.

GROWTH MINDSET - PAVE THE WAY TO YOUR PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

KEYNOTE 9:00 - 9:50

As technology advances, employees can be left behind in an ever-evolving environment. Executives who approach these challenges with a growth mindset will ensure success. Join Her Honour the Honourable Vicki O'Halloran as she discusses how you can adapt to changing times. You'll learn how to adopt a growth mindset, set learning goals, and seek constructive feedback.

Her Honour the Honourable Vicki O'Halloran AO
Administrator of the Northern Territory
Government House

UPSKILLING - BE SUCCESSFUL IN THE MODERN WORKPLACE

CASE STUDY 9:50 - 10:40

Upskilling gives you a competitive edge to stay ahead in your industry. Join Maree as she highlights her journey to leadership and how you can increase your value through upskilling and keep up with industry demands.

Maree Bredhauer
Mayor
Litchfield Council

THE IMPORTANCE OF A MENTOR IN CAREER DEVELOPMENT

CASE STUDY 11:00 - 11:50

A mentor is an experienced role model and trusted adviser who offers their knowledge, experience and advice to guide the mentee during their professional journey. But how easy is it to sustain a supportive relationship?

Join Angela as she discusses how to overcome these challenges by maintaining communication and independence.

Angela Tomazos Managing Partner,
Northern Territory Regional & Agribusiness
National Australia Bank

VOCAL PRESENCE TO EMPOWER YOUR COMMUNICATION

CASE STUDY 11:50 - 12:40

To build executive presence, you must first harness your voice. Without it, the power of your presence can be diminished, opening windows for bias. Meredith will discuss how you can use your voice to your advantage and strengthen your confidence.

Meredith Parry
Deputy Vice-Chancellor
& Vice-President Operations
Charles Darwin University

DESIGN YOUR EMPLOYEE RETENTION STRATEGY TO OVERCOME TRANSIENT WORKFORCE

PANEL 1:40 - 2:40

Businesses are always competing for the best talent. Implementing strategies to support and retain their staff is the goal, but this is easier said than done. Join our panellists as they discuss how they have tackled employee retention challenges and share strategies to help you achieve the same.

Jacqueline Reid
Strata Manager
Altitude Management

Penny Eckel
General Manager
Crococaurus Cove

Michelle Mason
