ABOUT THE EVENT

Information and technology is a vital underpinning for an organisation's success and a leadership career in ICT is an opportunity to make a positive impact on teams, business, and the world! Yet women continue to be significantly underrepresented in Australia's technology workforce, making up just 29% of the overall IT workforce and the lack of female representation at a senior level is even greater.

To be a successful leader and add strategic value to your organisation, you need to complement your occupational expertise with breakthrough leadership and coherent strategic business planning skills. This two-day workshop will delve into strategies for driving performance, modify your communication style, engage staff and stakeholders while adding strategic value through enhanced ICT leadership.

Over two energising days, you will gain leadership insights from global extraordinaire Jo Stewart-Rattray, along with an exclusive industry leaders panel! Take your career into your own hands and make the next step in your leadership transformation.

TRAINING DELIVERY AND PRE-COURSE QUESTIONNAIRE

This workshop will be delivered using a three tiered approach. The structure of each session is as follows:

- 1. Technical overview and review of research into the topic area under discussion
- 2. Practical application of management principles in the review of case studies, worked examples and interactive exercises
- 3. Discussion of outcomes and implementation issues

Workshop participants will have the opportunity to include comments and questions about issues outlined in the program by way of a pre-course questionnaire. This feedback will enable the course facilitator to adjust content accordingly. The workshop has limited places to allow for customisation, greater interactivity and for individual concerns to be addressed.
