BUILD A BETTER TOMORROW

The rail, roads and transport infrastructure industries are some of the largest industries in Australia and around the world. And yet, although there's an increasing amount of women in industry, they still hold only 19% of leadership roles. These industries have never been more crucial, and for that reason, we need to encourage more empowered, resilient, impassioned women to grow as leaders.

Liquid Learning's 6th National Women in Rail, Roads and Transport Infrastructure Leadership Summit proudly invites women across the sector to come together and learn the secrets to a long and successful leadership career! Hear from our amazing industry speakers, share their stories of courage and perseverance, be inspired by their experiences, and prepared to tackle new challenges and positions on your journey down the leadership track!

- ▶ Inspiration from some of the sector's most senior women leaders
- ▶ Expand your personal and professional network of like-minded women
- ▶ Driving individual and team growth through change
